

Welcome,

We are excited to have your interest in the 2022 Gateway to the Delta Festival. We are in our tenth year of existence and are excited to be planning a full-scale event with Arts and Craft Vendors from across the Southeast participating.

Our City Council has given its approval for us to close down the entire Charleston Square for the day on October 22, 2022. A built in day-long crowd is assured with dozens of groups booking class and family reunions and church gatherings for the day. Add to this, we will be rolling out a national and international traditional marketing campaign, utilizing newspaper, web, radio, social media, and more media outlets.

Top-notch musical performances from some of the region's most popular touring acts are expected to drive attendance up. We are also offering active forms of entertainment for the youth of the area in our expanded Kids Zone.

Spaces for a large number of Arts & Crafts vendors are being made available around the entire historic Charleston Square. With visitors coming from far and wide to enjoy a day full of authentic Mississippi music, visit with friends, shop and enjoy great food, we anticipate a lucrative opportunity for our arts and crafts vendors.

The Charleston Gateway to the Delta Festival is organized by the Charleston Arts & Revitalization Effort (CARE). We look forward to having you join us for another successful Gateway to the Delta Festival. Book now as spaces are filling up fast!

Thank you,

Dana Clolinger
Festival Chairman
